If you are in the Belleville, Brentwood, or Saint Louis area, call our office or e-mail us today to schedule your free initial consultation, and get to know Dr. Quigless and his team. Dr. Quigless was born and raised in St. Louis, Missouri. He was exposed to dentistry at an early age because his father, Dr. Charles R. Quigless, was also a dentist. After graduating from the St. Louis University High School in 1984, he attended Tulane University in New Orleans. Between 1984 and 1988 he obtained a B.S. degree in Mathematics and completed the pre-dental curriculum. From 1989 through 1990, he worked as a Systems Analyst at South Western Bell Telephone Company. In the following year, through 1991, he was a mathematics instructor at Harris Stowe University in St. Louis. Between 1991 and 1995, Dr. Quigless attended the University of Tennessee College of Dentistry, where he obtained a Doctor of Dental Surgery degree (D.D.S.). For each of those four years, he had a scholarship. Dr. Quigless then opened his dental office in 1996 in Belleville, Illinois. Now an esteemed member of the dental community, Dr. Quigless has completed post-graduate work at the Las Vegas Institute, and is the now the Chairman of the Board for the LVI's™ Branding Company. He is also an active member of the International Association of Comprehensive Aesthetics, a group focused on the specialization of cosmetic dentistry, as well as the American Dental Association, National Dental Association, Missouri Dental Association and the Greater St. Louis Dental Society. Dr. Quigless enjoys giving back to his community, and has seen over 10,000 children in a school outreach dental program which he founded over a decade ago.
